JM Handwritten Webfont License Agreement

This Agreement is entered into between Jiří Macík ("Licensor") and ("Licensee"). By purchasing, downloading, hosting, deploying, or using the JM Handwritten webfont files ("Webfont Software"), Licensee agrees to this Agreement.

1. Grant of License

Licensor grants Licensee a non-exclusive, non-transferable annual license to use the Webfont Software only for the licensed website identified in the applicable order, invoice, or written agreement.

This license applies only to the licensed primary domain and any expressly approved direct subdomains.

2. Permitted Use

Licensee may install or host the Webfont Software solely to render live text on the licensed website, up to the licensed annual pageview volume stated in the applicable order, invoice, or written agreement.

Local development, staging, and testing use is allowed only for work on the licensed website and does not extend the license to any additional public domain, brand, or project.

3. Uses Not Included

This license does not include desktop installation rights, app embedding, electronic publication embedding, digital ads, server products, SaaS, template platforms, or any use where third parties can access, extract, upload, select, generate, or customize text using the Webfont Software.

4. Restrictions

Licensee may not:
(a) use the Webfont Software on any domain not expressly licensed;

(b) share, sell, sublicense, or redistribute the Webfont Software;

(c) make the Webfont Software available for download by end users;

(d) use the Webfont Software in a way that allows extraction or reuse beyond normal website display;

(e) convert the Webfont Software into other formats except as supplied or expressly approved by Licensor;

(f) use the Webfont Software for client sites, affiliates, advertisers, other brands, or separate domains unless separately licensed.

A developer may access the Webfont Software only for work on the licensed website and only on Licensee's behalf. Such access does not transfer any license rights.

5. Ownership

The Webfont Software is licensed, not sold. All rights, title, and intellectual property rights in and to the Webfont Software remain the sole property of Licensor.

6. Named Licensee

This license applies only to the named Licensee and the licensed website. It may not be transferred to another person, company, project, or domain without prior written permission from Licensor.

7. Term and Renewal

This Agreement remains in effect for the licensed term stated in the applicable order, invoice, or written agreement. Continued use beyond that term or beyond the licensed pageview volume requires renewal or an extended license.

8. Termination

If Licensee breaches this Agreement, Licensor may terminate it immediately by written notice. Upon termination, Licensee must stop using the Webfont Software and remove it from all servers, services, repositories, and deployments.

9. Warranty and Liability

Licensor warrants only that Licensor has the right to license the Webfont Software. The Webfont Software is provided “as is,” without any other warranty. Licensor is not liable for any indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising from use of, or inability to use, the Webfont Software.

10. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the Czech Republic.

11. Entire Agreement

This Agreement is the entire agreement between Licensor and Licensee regarding the Webfont Software and supersedes all prior discussions or understandings relating to it.
